Green Bay Sectional effective date modified

The effective date for the Green Bay Sectional Chart is being changed in order to accommodate the charting of the Minneapolis Class B Airspace revision. The current edition of the Green Bay Sectional Chart (86th) will remain effective until January 9, 2014. The next edition of Green Bay will be effective from January 9, 2014 to May 29, 2014. Please refer to the Aeronautical Chart Bulletins section of the Airport/Facility Directory for updated information regarding major changes in aeronautical information that have occurred since the last chart publication date.
